

Numbers are about 'how much', 'how long' and 'how many'

© Commonwealth of Australia 2006

What we do and what it means

Mum: We are supposed to put in 300 ml of milk.

Children will hear and see numbers being used to describe 'how much', 'how many' or 'how long'.

Knowing that numbers can be used in different ways is important for later learning in mathematics.

An Australian Government initiative, funded by the Department of Education, Science and Training